

Language Policy for Incoming Participants

English is the language of International communication at WSZOP. All formalities, including insurance, accommodation arrangement and assessments are dealt with in English. Classes in which foreign students participate together with Polish students are held in English, unless otherwise precisely stated.

In case of needs there are extra classes of English offered to foreign students free of charge.

International Office provides assistance to foreign students in solving their problems concerning travel and other issues.

Courses of Polish are organized on request and foreign students are welcome to participate in all cultural events taking place at WSZOP or outside in which WSZOP is a partner.
